

Living in the Kingdom:
In Submission to Christ's Kingly
Authority

I'M NOT PERFECT. I'M NEVER GOING TO BE. AND THAT'S THE GREAT THING ABOUT LIVING THE CHRISTIAN LIFE AND TRYING TO LIVE BY FAITH, IS YOU'RE TRYING TO GET BETTER EVERY DAY."

Tim Tebow

I want to have a life of significance...and caring for the least of these is what really matters....I believe we can inspire and be a light to people who have been abandoned or thrown away or neglected. That is where my heart is.

- ▶ (quoted in the Orlando Sentinel, Aug. 22)

When who you are is grounded in WHOSE you are you realize it doesn't matter what life throws your way.

Tim Tebow, in Shaken

- ▶ His crown covers the scars of thorns, His scepter is held by hands marked by nails....all for me.

*Implications of submission to
Christ the King:*

Accepting

Accepting mysteries

Allowing

Allowing Him to define “good”

Admitting

Admitting weakness

Acknowledging

Acknowledging His sovereignty

Living in the Kingdom:

In Commission to His call on my life

Therefore, since we received a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe.

Hebrews 12:28

Lord, what would you have me to do?

All who are part of God's Kingdom, under the reign of King Jesus are called to be:

Witnesses

Ambassadors

Prayer warriors

Servants

Disciples

Examples

Followers of Christ

“Salt and Light”

We are all called to be Kingdom People in every area of our lives. We are “dual citizens” - citizens of our world but also of God's Kingdom.

Lord, help me to glorify You. I am poor; help me to glorify You by contentment. I am sick; help me to give You honor by patience. I have talents; help me to extol You by spending them for You. I have time, Lord; help me to redeem it, that I may serve You. I have a heart to feel; Lord, let that heart feel no love but Yours, and glow with no flame but affection for You. I have a mind to think, Lord; help me to think of You and for You. You have put me in this world for something, Lord, show me what that is and help me to work out my life-purpose....I am all Yours; take me, and enable me to glorify You now, in all that I say, in all that I do, and with all that I have.
